RAISING FOR THE ROOF

As most of you know, our church roof is leaking. We applied for a matching grant from Catholic Extension in October 2024. While waiting for their response, we repaired the flat roof, which was leaking badly, in February 2025 for an amount of $24,000. We were able to do that with money from our checking account and because of a generous donation of $10,000 from an anonymous donor.

The estimate for the main roof of the church is $60,000. The Parish Pastoral Council met on Monday, May 26, 2025. After discussing the project, it was decided that we must fix the roof immediately to avoid further damage. But where will we get the money?

Some happy news is that on June 9, 2025, the Catholic Extension notified us of a promise that they will give up to $15,000 as a grant if we raise the same amount. The money must be raised within the next couple of months.

This is the economy of the project:

Stipulated amount with us:

CDLP savings in the diocese: $ 12,000

Knights of Columbus: $ 5,000

Ladies Altar society: $ 2,000

Catholic Extension grant: $ 15,000

Total $ 34,000

The amount we must raise is $26,000.

Please do your best in donating for this cause. If writing a check, please put "for church roof" in the memo.

Precious Gift

We are all familiar with the situation of the little boy who wants to give his father a birthday present but does not have any money to buy one. His father, realizing his son is too young to make any money, slips him five bucks so that he can do some shopping the next time they are in town. The big day comes, and the little boy proudly presents his father with a beautifully wrapped, birthday gift. He is so very happy and proud of himself. So is his father - proud and happy to have such a loving son.

God gave us his Son so that we could give him back as a gift and become once again his sons and daughters. Jesus Christ was placed in our hands so that we could have a gift, the best of gifts. During each Eucharistic celebration, we give this precious gift back to God the Father. Today we celebrate the feast of the Eucharist.

MASS IS HEAVEN ON EARTH

Scott Hahn was a Protestant minister, who had for twenty years studied the Book of Revelation. He admits that, in trying to study Revelation, he felt like a person standing before a locked door, searching for the right key on a keychain. There was no key that fitted, until he linked the Book of Revelation to the Mass. And that, in his opinion, is the right key. His experience thereafter was so inspiring that a year later, he asked to be received into full communion with the Catholic Church. This in a nutshell, is his thesis: The key to understanding the Book of Revelation is the Mass. Stated differently; the Mass is the only way a Christian can truly make sense of the Book of Revelation.

WHAT ARE THEY HUNGERY FOR?

An American priest was invited to take part in a youth rally in Canada. About 700 young people were camping out in a large park for the weekend. Their program included workshops on such topics as dating, sexual morality, drugs, peer pressure and meditation. The organizers felt that the least popular workshop would be the one on meditation. They were in for a big surprise. It was the best attended workshop of the weekend. At one point in that workshop, the priest sensed a profound presence of the Holy Spirit and invited the participants to pray together. The response was amazing.

Afterwards the priest said, "It was one of the most moving experiences in all my years of priestly ministry." Then alluding to the image in today's gospel he said: "There's a whole mountain-side full of young people out there who want to eat, but there's no one to feed them. There's a whole mountain-side full of young people out there who want to pray but there's no one to teach them." The priest's remark merely paraphrases what Jesus said in the Gospel.

“Although the Eucharist is celebrated solemnly every day, we deem it fitting that at least once a year it be celebrated with greater honor and a solemn commemoration. Indeed we grasp the other things we commemorate with our spirit and our mind, but this does not mean that we obtain their real presence. On the contrary, in this sacramental commemoration of Christ, even though in a different form, Jesus Christ is present with us in his own substance. While He was about to ascend into Heaven he said “And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age” (Matthew 28:20). ~From the papal decree instituting the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, Pope Urban IV, 1264.
