FAITH FORMATION

A vocation is a precious gift that God sows in our heart, a call to leave ourselves behind and embark on a journey of love and service. Every vocation in the Church, whether lay, ordained or consecrated, is a sign of the hope that God has for this world and for each of his children. On Saturday, August 19, 2000, Pope Saint John Paul II addressed youth during the 15th World Youth Day celebration in Rome. His powerful words can still inspire us today.

MESSAGE TO YOUTH

"It is Jesus you seek when you dream of happiness; he is waiting for you when nothing else you find satisfies you; he is the beauty to which you are so attracted; it is he who provokes you with that thirst for fullness that will not let you settle for compromise; it is he who urges you to shed the masks of a false life; it is he who reads in your hearts your most genuine choices, the choices that others try to stifle.

It is Jesus who stirs in you the desire to do something great with your lives, the will to follow an ideal, the refusal to allow yourselves to be grounded down by mediocrity, the courage to commit yourselves humbly and patiently to improving yourselves and society, making the world more human and more fraternal."

~Pope Saint John Paul II

The Basilica of St. John Lateran holds an unparalleled place in the history of Christianity as the oldest of the four major basilicas in Rome and the cathedral church of the Pope. It is more than just a historic landmark—it represents the unity and devotion of Catholics worldwide. The feast day of the Dedication of the Basilica of St. John Lateran is celebrated to honor its place as the "Mother and Head of all Churches in Rome and in the World."

LAFAYETTE VOCATIONS
DIOCESE OF LAFAYETTE
National Vocation Awareness Week was celebrated in our country November 2-8, 2025. Please ask Our Lord for more dedicated, priests, deacons, and consecrated men and women. May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, and respond generously to God's gift of vocation.

Check out the new website for the Diocese of Lafayette Office of Vocations and Seminarians! Go to www.lafayettevocations.com

Forms of Consecrated Life

There are many forms of consecrated life for men and women in the Catholic Church. Each form is unique, but all are united in their mission to serve the Lord, whether it be by a life dedicated to apostolic service, cloistered prayer, or another type of apostolate. A summary of each form is described in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC).

- Evangelical Counsels (CCC 915, 916)
Religious Life (CCC 925, 926, 927)
Eremitic Life (CCC 920, 921)
Secular Institutes (CCC 928, 929)
Consecrated Virgins & Widows (CCC 922, 923, 924)
Societies of Apostolic Life (CCC 930)

Looking to discern your vocation further?

Discerning your vocation can be challenging, especially when you're balancing school or work. Sometimes, stepping away from your daily routine can provide the clarity you need to discern whether God is calling you to the seminary or religious life. The Diocese of Lafayette offers several retreat options designed to help you reflect and pray deeply about your path. To learn more contact Vocations Director, Rev. Blake Dubroc at 337-291-5690.

HOW TO DISCERN YOUR VOCATION

- 1 PRAY: Create a routine prayer life of attending Mass regularly, praying the Rosary, meditating on Scripture,
4 COME & SEE: "Come & See" events offer a glimpse into the life of a seminarian/religious sister. They
5 GET INVOLVED: Volunteer in your parish or community and find trusted
6 REST: Discerning a vocation should not be considered an "accomplishment" that you check off your to do list.
